Camp Scholarships available upon request. Contact us!

- Join us for an inspiring and relaxing family weekend that offers a variety of activities for children, adults and the entire family, (siblings need to be in the same age group)
- Parents are responsible for health care throughout the program. An EMT will be on site to assist with medical emergencies. Please consider remoteness, camp environment, walking distances, etc.
- Parents are responsible for the supervision of their children
- Please contact us for special needs/concerns. We want to ensure we can accommodate your needs.

*"It is an amazing experience to not feel alone in the world.
To meet and share some wonderful kid stories has given me and my family so much hope for the future."*
